ABSTRACT

This book is designed to introduce students to a variety of fascinating desert ecosystems through a series of learning activities including games, graphs, experiments, and crafts. Each section contains an information section along with student activities and worksheets. The section topics are sand, scorpions, and snow; scenic sculpture; desert animals; prickly plants; people of the desert; and celebrating the desert. Also included are a glossary, a suggested readings list, two full-color posters, and answers. (MKR)
